Women with Deep Ties to Ireland Offer Inspiration and Motivation in New Book

“Wise Irish Women will make you laugh, and cry, and think, and love.”

—Mary Higgins Clark, International Bestselling Author

(Dallas, TX ), Two cousins inspired by their Irish ancestry gathered generations of wisdom, from successful Irish women with one thing in common: a deep and abiding connection to Ireland and its wisdom. They compiled all this wisdom into a 235 -page book called Wise Irish Women.

Wise Irish Women: A Journey of Love, Loyalty, and Friendship to Inspire the Irish Spirit brings together the voices of thirty-six women and their stories covering everything from Irish charm, Irish luck, and Irish love of family, to Irish gumption.

Patricia Connorton Kagerer one of the authors, will be signing her new book on Friday February 17th 2012 from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at the Irish Rover Pub, 8250 Gaylord Parkway, Frisco, TX 75034 and at the Trinity Hall Pub and Tuesday March 13, 2012 from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. Mockingbird Station 5321 East Mockingbird Lane Dallas, TX 75206

The public is invited to this book signing and St. Patrick’s Day kick-off.

“I witnessed the strength and character of the Irish from an early age,” says Kagerer, who co-authored the book with her cousin Laura Prendergast Gordon. The Vice President of Safety and Process Management at CF Jordan Construction in Dallas, Texas, Kagerer attributes her success in a male-dominated industry to the wisdom she learned from her Irish mother and grandmother.

Co-author Gordon, who is the Deputy City Attorney for the City of El Paso, couldn’t agree more: “Our grandmother was a huge source of strength and inspiration for both of us. Patricia and I knew this particular brand of wisdom needed to be shared, along with words of wisdom from other women with deep ties to Ireland.”

Whether it's a story by acclaimed author Mary Higgins Clark, playwright Marianne McDonald, QVC Host Jane Treacy, or the authors themselves, each story is designed to inspire women to make a difference in their own corner of the world.
